Seven Days Toward Christ the King

From Psalm 90:1-12

Day 1 – Sunday (11/15/2026): Our Dwelling Place (v. 1)

Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations.

The King we await is already the refuge of every generation. The saints in glory and the church on earth share the same home in Him.

Prayer: Thank You that You are, and have always been and will forever be, our dwelling place. Help us rest in You this week and as we wait for the fullness of Your coming.

Day 2 – Monday: From Everlasting to Everlasting (v. 2)

Before the mountains were born…, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

His Kingship does not begin with His return; it is from everlasting. We wait for the visible reign of the One who always has been the only King.

Prayer: Eternal King, steady our hearts with the truth that You are God from everlasting to everlasting.

Day 3 – Tuesday: Sovereign over Dust and Time (vv. 3–4)

You turn people back to dust…. A thousand years in your sight are like a day….

The same King who holds every lifespan also holds the calendar of history. Our waiting— and all that happens during the waiting— is not outside His sovereignty.

Prayer: Lord of time, teach us to trust Your calendar, Your timing, as we number our days.

Day 4 – Wednesday: Grass That Withers (vv. 5–6)

…[Y]ou sweep people away in the sleep of death— they are like the new grass of the morning…. [B]y evening it is dry and withered.

Every earthly glory fades. This makes room in our hearts for the King whose glory does not wither.

Prayer: Help us not to make room for and hold onto what is dry and ultimately withers. Fix our hope on the King who remains.

Day 5 – Thursday: Sins in the Light of His Presence (vv. 7–8)

You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of Your presence.

The coming King sees all. That is sobering, but it's also one of the reasons we cling to the mercy He has already shown us at the cross.

Prayer: Search us and know us. And thank You for the mercy that covers what Your light reveals.

Day 6 – Friday: Brief Days of Trouble (vv. 9–10)

Our days may come to seventy years, or eighty…; yet the best of them are but trouble and sorrow, for they quickly pass….

The shortness of life is not a threat when we know that the King is coming to make all things new. It is a call to live full lives for His sake during this "already and not yet" time.

Prayer: Give us wisdom to use these brief days for Your purposes and glory while we wait.

Day 7 – Saturday: A Heart of Wisdom (v. 12)

Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

This is the prayer of the week. Wisdom, in part, is living now in light of the King who is surely coming.

Prayer: Teach us to number our days. Give us hearts of wisdom, give us eyes to see You high and lifted up, as we prepare to worship You as King tomorrow morning.
